09/21/2018		MINUTE ORDER: Defendants' 10 Motion for an Extension of Time is hereby GRANTED. The adjusted briefing schedule will be as follows: Defendants' motion for summary judgment is now due by November 20, 2018; Plaintiff's combined cross-motion for summary judgment and opposition is now due by December 20, 2018; Defendants' combined opposition and reply is now due by January 22, 2019; and Plaintiff's reply is due now due by February 20, 2019. However, no further extensions of Defendants' summary judgment briefing deadline will be granted. 11/12/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court has reviewed EOUSA's 34 November 4, 2019 status report. In light of EOUSA's description of the materials contained in the estimated 200,000 pages of potentially responsive records discovered in the USAO for the District of Columbia, the relationship between those records and the more narrow categories of records that Plaintiff has sought in subsequent FOIA requests (which are not subject to this litigation), and the estimated 3-year processing time for those records (which the Court accepts as a good faith estimate), Plaintiff is directed to file a notice advising the Government if he is willing to either forego or narrow the scope of Request 2017-00487 so as to expedite the processing of the records that he is most interested in receiving. Plaintiff shall file the notice by December 12, 2019. Should Plaintiff choose to narrow the scope of the request, the Government shall, within 30 days thereafter, provide Plaintiff and the Court with a revised estimate of the number of responsive records and a realistic processing and production schedule. Given the way that EOUSA processes FOIA requests and its current backlog, Plaintiff is reminded that the more targeted his request is, the sooner he is likely to receive responsive records.
